VIVA AND THE VEINS

Innovation, Access, Impact.

The VIVA Foundation is a not-for-profit organization driving progress in vascular medicine and intervention by convening the clinicians, innovators, and industry leaders shaping the future of care. Through high-impact education, research, advocacy, and collaboration, VIVA serves as a premier platform for the exchange of ideas that move technologies from concept to clinical practice.

Our programs are developed by a multidisciplinary board of leading physicians and feature timely data, real-world clinical debate, and insights from a globally recognized faculty. With a highly engaged audience and an environment designed for meaningful interaction, VIVA and The VEINS offer industry partners a powerful opportunity to showcase innovation, gain clinical perspective, and help define what's next in vascular care.

2025 Attendee Breakdown by Specialty

Why exhibit at VIVA and The VEINS?

- Connect with the full spectrum of vascular care-from trainees to established leaders across peripheral vascular disease
- Engage directly with key decision-makers and influencers in an environment designed for meaningful clinical dialogue
- Showcase your products and services to the next generation of clinicians shaping the future of vascular innovation

Physicians-in-Training Program: Developing Tomorrow's Vascular Leaders

VIVA and The VEINS award annual scholarships to fellows and residents, providing critical access to the conferences and the Face-Off Competition for the next generation of vascular specialists. In 2025, 58 scholarships were awarded.

Supporters of the scholarship program receive exclusive engagement opportunities, including a private Sunday evening reception (October 4) where trainees rotate through participating supporters' booths, creating direct, meaningful interaction in a focused setting.

"VIVA was one of the most organized, enjoyable, and informative meetings I've attended. I've already been recommending it to colleagues."
